ONCE IS NOT ENOUGH

Russia might not be high on everyone's list of holiday destinations - but it should be. It is one of the most extraordinary countries in the world, with an almost matchless depth of cultural and historical riches, and landscapes that have inspired artists and poets for generations.

WHERE TO GO

WHEN TO GO

All year round, regardless of the season, you can find many interesting programs on our list. The weather differs so much in different seasons you could choose an extreme tour and feel like a pioneer explorer or board a comfortable ship for a cruise along the stunningly gorgeous landscapes of Russia.

In the Summers, you can visit famous resorts palaces of the Russian Tsars, hiking tours, rive rafting, SUV tours through impassable forests and witness the incredible White Nights.

In the Winters, you can engage yourselves with snowmobile tours, heli-skiing, dogs and reindeer sledding, ethnic tours and witness the unique beauty of the untouched wilderness. Snowfall adds a sprinkling of white to castles, statues, and houses of worship making it a spectacle worth experiencing

MOSCOW

THE CITY THAT HAS IT ALL

Moscow, capital of Russia is located in the far western part of the country. Since it was first mentioned in the chronicles of 1147, Moscow has played a vital role in Russian history. It became the capital of Muscovy in the late 13th century; hence, the people of Moscow are known as Muscovites. Today Moscow is not only the political centre of Russia but also the country's most populous city and its industrial, cultural, scientific, and educational capital. For more than 600 years Moscow also has been the spiritual centre of the Russian Orthodox Church.

ST. PETERSBURG

VENICE OF THE NORTH

The second largest city in Russia, St. Petersburg is rightfully called the cultural capital of Russia. Since its first days, St. Petersburg had always been a multicultural city, welcoming guests and specialists from other countries. Along with Russian masters and architects, many European builders and engineers contributed to the glory and beauty of the city.

St. Petersburg's White Nights, which run from the end of May through to mid-July, are legendary.

KALININGRAD

ARRIVE AND REVIVE

The world's biggest country has a geopolitical oddity: the region of Kaliningrad. This enclave is a fragment of Russian territory the size of Yorkshire, squeezed between Poland and Lithuania.

The main attraction is the redbrick Gothic Königsberg cathedral, rebuilt with the help of German donations. It was once the heart of a vibrant city-centre community. But everything around it was destroyed in the Second World War, and it now stands amid greenery on Kant Island.

AZERBAIJAN

LAND OF FIRE

Azerbaijan's varied landscapes are home to an impressive variety of flora, fauna, and even just beautiful spots to discover. Azerbaijan's nature is defined by the waters of the Caspian Sea, the peaks of the Caucasus Mountains, with the rich valleys and forests that lie in between.

WHERE TO GO

BAKU

GABALA

SHAHDAG

WHEN TO GO

Azerbaijan does not get as cold as one might imagine. The Caucasus Mountains do get snow in winter, with temps as low as -20°C, but they also protect the rest of the country from full on Arctic conditions. Similarly, the Caspian Sea keeps summer manageable, but it can hit 40°C. So for hiking and culture, the best time to visit Azerbaijan is April-June and Sep-Oct. The mountains turn into a wildflower frenzy when snows melt and, at the same time spring brings the biggest holiday

FASCINATING FACTS

- The Land of Fire: The first known fireplace and construction in human history, which is dated back from 700,000 to 500,000 years ago, was discovered in Azikh Cave, the largest cave in Azerbaijan.
- A town built on stilts: Oily Rocks (Neft Dashlar) is the first and largest town on stilts to be constructed at sea.
- The wolf man of Sheki Khan: When visiting Sheki Khan's Palace you may come across a man named Cumay. As you draw closer, Cumay will remove the cloth to reveal the stuffed head of a wolf, and if you offer a donation the wolf's eyes will light up brightly.
- The Burning Mountain: The Burning Mountain is a rare natural wonder in the Absheron peninsula. It burns all year round due to natural gas escaping from the ground.

BAKU AND GABALA

CITY OF WINDS

The port city of Baku, the cultural, industrial and political capital of Azerbaijan is located on the western Caspian seaside, on the bay shores of the same name in the southern part of the Absheron Peninsula, rich in its oil fields. Baku consists of 11 administrative districts and 5 townships.

Gabala, which is located about 225 km away from the capita city of Azerbaijan, is a perfect place for rest and tourism. The weather here is mild in spring and autumn, hot in summer and cold in winter.

TURKEY

WHERE HISTORY COMPETES WITH LANDSCAPES

Turkey is fast emerging as one of the most popular holiday destinations in the world. Tourism here now flourishes and attracts thousands of visitors every year. As such a vast and constantly changing country, there is so much to discover while on holiday here.

WHERE TO GO

WHEN TO GO

The best time to visit Turkey depends on what you're interested in. April, May, September and October are pleasantly warm, with temperatures of 20°C to 30°C, are typically the best times to visit Turkey's grand array of ancient sites.

The summer months (June through to September) are very hot, with temperatures reaching the mid-thirties on the south coast. This is perfect for lounging by the sea or a pool. The weather begins to cool off from late October. November through to March can get quite cold and many hotels in coastal areas close during these months. However, despite the cool temperatures, these winter months can be the best time to explore the sites, as they're far less busy!

FASCINATING FACTS

- Istanbul is on two continents Istanbul lives or two continents. The city is separated by the Bosporus, it consists of a European and an Asiar part. Overall, 95% of Turkey is in Asia, and 5% is in Europe
- The story of Santa Claus originated in Turkey Born to wealthy parents, Nicholas was a Christian saint and Greek bishop of Myra, who was born in Patara. Once his parents died, he received a large amount of wealth, which he would give away to the poor and needy. Legend has it that he would drop bags of gold coins down the chimneys of houses, and provide fruits to children. His good deeds spread through Europe, and locals began integrating it with their myths and legends.
- There are over 30 languages spoken in Turkey One of the most interesting facts about Turkey is how many languages are spoken there. Although the official language in the country is Turkish, there are over 30 minority languages spoken across the country, including Kurmanji (Northern Kurdish), Mesopotamian Arabic and
